

HACKER!

A Juried Art Show at the Antique Boat Museum
Official Entry Form

EXHIBITION GUIDELINES

- Artwork must capture the spirit and essence of John Hacker and his boat designs.
- Open to any amateur or professional artist or photographer.
- Submissions must be original and not a copy of any other work.
- Submissions will be subject to a jury of local artists and boating enthusiasts that will select works for exhibition. Selected works will be on display through closing of the 2010 season. The Antique Boat Museum reserves the right to make final exhibition selections.
- Museum visitors will vote for "Visitors' Choice" throughout the season. Winner of Visitors' Choice will have their artwork incorporated into the 2011 Annual Boat Show Poster.
- Visitors' Choice winner will remain on display through 2011.
- All works must be matted/framed or otherwise ready to hang.
- There are no size restrictions, but artists should keep in mind that artwork awarded Visitors' Choice will be incorporated into a 16" x 24" poster.
- Due to gallery constraints, 3-dimensional works (e.g. sculptures) will not be accepted.
- Delivery of and pick up of work will be the responsibility of the artist.
- There is no entry fee.
- The Antique Boat Museum reserves the right to make final approval of 2011 Boat Show Poster artwork.
- By submitting artwork and signing the entry form, the artist grants unrestricted permission to the Antique Boat Museum to use images of submitted artwork in exhibits, promotion, advertising, educational programming, fund raising and merchandising.

DEADLINES:

- March 5 – deadline for submission of entry form with description of art, dimensions, media type.
- March 26 - deadline for submission of photograph of artwork.
- April 2 - Artists will be notified of acceptance for exhibition.
- April 16 – works to be delivered to Antique Boat Museum
- June 25 - all artists in exhibition will be invited to an opening celebration at the Museum.
- September 10 - Winner of Visitors' Choice will be notified.
