Elizabeth and Bolling Haxall Building

Your first stop is right here in the lobby. Get an introduction to the Museum and see Atosis. She is a rare 100-year-old raceboat in original condition. Then view a short film in our theater down the hall past the store. Other galleries offer more to see. The library is open to the public on the second floor.

Small Craft Building

Tour three new exhibits on Canoes, St. Lawrence Skiffs and a display about the many ways boats move across the water.

EJ Noble Historic Stone Building

Watch volunteers and staff restore boats from our collection. They demonstrate their craft and describe boat building.

La Duchesse

Explore life aboard the elegant 106 foot houseboat, La Duchesse, commissioned in 1903. Stand on the deck, peek in cabins and learn about summer life on the River during the Gilded Age. Guided tour only (see next page).

McNally Yacht House

View your Museum's in-water-fleet. You may see the Museum's ride boats, small sailboats, or even a new acquisition. This display changes throughout the season.

Cleveland E. Dodge Memorial Launch Building

Immerse yourself in your Museum's collection of powered pleasure boats including launches, utilities, cruisers and more. Go aboard and explore the interiors of two fabulous cruisers.

Quest for Speed

Do you feel the "need for speed?" Some of the world's finest raceboats are on display in the exhibition "Quest for Speed, The Story of Powerboat Racing." Learn about the fast-paced world of racing history and marvel at the fascinating boats. Take a turn at playing the video game Hydro Thunder. Stop in the kid's corner for family fun.

Boat Restoration Shop

Here, the world famous runabout, Pardon Me, is being restored. Engage with the boatbuilder who is delicately balancing the preservation of her original elements while repairing deterioration so that she can return to the River.

Islander Marina & Lodge and French Bay

Enjoy accommodations adjacent to the Museum and minutes from historic downtown Clayton. Boat brokerage and licensed real estate offered, as well. www.frenchbay.com or 315.686.5574
