MUSEUM TO OFFER FEBRUARY BREAK CAMP

CLAYTON, NY (January 24, 2013) – Looking for a fun and creative, family-friendly activity during the February school break? The Antique Boat Museum is hosting a drop- in arts and crafts time from Monday February 18 - Friday, February 22.

This two-hour camp from 9:30 – 11:30 am will explore a variety of River and boat related topics. Try boatbuilding through creative boat model making and decorative knot-tying, or explore ecology through fish prints. How about designing a nautical stained glass window? Prepare for summer by decorating a log book filled with information and pictures from various rivers. This activity time is just the thing to beat the winter blues and get ready for spring.

All elementary school-aged children are welcome. Each session is $5 per child for members and $6 for non-members with a family maximum of $20 per family per day. If you are interested in coming every day ask our five-day special rate. Children under age seven must be accompanied by an adult. Call Julie at 315-686-4104 or email at jbroadbent@abm.org with questions or to register.

Each day will feature a different activity (below) in addition to coloring pages, plastic toy boats, and dress-up, which will be offered every day.
