CLAIRE WAKEFIELD PROMOTED TO CURATORIAL ASSISTANT

CLAYTON, NY (January 25, 2013) – Claire Wakefield was recently promoted to curatorial assistant at the Antique Boat Museum. She joined the Museum in January 2010, as membership and marketing coordinator.

As curatorial assistant, Ms. Wakefield will assist the curator with management of the Museum's artifact and archival collections, and preparation of exhibitions. She will continue to handle the institution's social media network and web site, and oversee the delivery of more Museum content on the Internet.

An alumna of Juniata College in Huntingdon, Pennsylvania, Ms. Wakefield began her career as assistant registrar at the Juniata College Museum of Art, and also held previous posts at the Albany Institute of History and Art and in the Juniata College Academic Support Services.

A native of Deer River, New York, Ms. Wakefield resides in Clayton.

The Antique Boat Museum is the premier freshwater nautical museum in North America. Located on the St. Lawrence River in the 1000 Islands, the ABM features a collection of over 300 antique and classic boats among thousands of recreational boating artifacts. From May to November, the campus comes alive with speed boat rides, boat shows, and educational programs for all ages, special events and more. For more information please visit the Museum's website at ABM.org.
