SURVIVOR-STYLE TEEN NIGHT TO BE HELD THIS SATURDAY

CLAYTON, New York (March 13, 2013) – Do you have what it takes to survive? The Antique Boat Museum announced today its final Teen Night for the spring calendar and it will consist of a “survivor-style” competition.

This Saturday, March 16 from 7-9 p.m., teens will be tested on their nautical survival skills on the campus of the Antique Boat Museum in Clayton. The “survivor-style” night will feature obstacle courses, mental challenges, and strategy games to test your nautical knowledge. In addition, there will also be snacks and music throughout the night.

The festivities will conclude with one winner who will receive a gift certificate to the Lyric Coffee House & Bistro.

Tickets are just $5 at the door and available to any interested teen.

For event information, contact Julie Broadbent at 315.686.4104 x235.

Located on the St. Lawrence River in the 1000 Islands, the Antique Boat Museum features a collection of over 300 antique and classic boats among thousands of recreational boating artifacts. Beginning May 10, the campus comes alive with speed boat rides, boat shows, and educational programs for all ages, special events and more. For more information please visit the Museum’s website at ABM.org.
