

ANTIQUÉ BOAT MUSEUM – BIRTHDAY PARTY PACKAGE

This PDF is fillable. Please download, complete form, and email back to rentals@abm.org.

The Antique Boat Museum is first and foremost a museum providing an educational experience for its visitors on a daily basis during its operating season May – October. No museum activities, exhibits, or schedules will be altered for the needs of a private event. The Antique Boat Museum reserves the right to make changes to its rental policies at any time. ABM will provide: tables and chairs, clean event space, clean restrooms, and post-event garbage removal.

Rental Policies:

Renter is responsible for actions of all guests and vendors while on ABM campus. ABM is not responsible for items left on campus.

Service animals are permitted in accordance with the ADA. Pets are not permitted on campus unless they have a specific handler and remain on leash at all times.

Guests may park on the village streets, in the main gravel parking lot on Mary St., and in the Community Lot located between James St. and Riverside Dr.

No swimming is permitted from ABM docks or seawall

No flames are allowed, included but not limited to: candles, torches, sparklers, bonfires.

No smoking is allowed on ABM campus including buildings, grounds, and docks; guests wishing to smoke may do so on exterior sidewalks.

Events serving alcohol to guests must also serve food and non-alcoholic beverages.

Events serving alcohol must have a New York State Liquor Authority Temporary Beer & Wine Special Event Permit, either obtained by renter or caterer.

Beer, wine, cider, seltzer, and champagne are the only alcohol allowed on the ABM campus.

All decorations not placed on table tops must be pre-approved by ABM staff, no adhesives allowed. Damage by adhesives is subject to applicable fees.

Event space must be left neat and tidy at conclusion of event:

- All surfaces must be clear of garbage and bottles.
- Tables and chairs must be left under cover

By executing this Contract, the Renter acknowledges that the Antique Boat Museum shall be held harmless and shall have no liability to the Renter (except for return of a deposit), in the event the facility which is reserved is not available due to fire or other type of unforeseen casualty such as inclement weather, or any act of God which is not within the reasonable control of the Antique Boat Museum.
