

ANTIQUE BOAT MUSEUM – MICROWEDDING CONTRACT

This PDF is fillable. Please download, complete form, and email back to rentals@abm.org.

The Antique Boat Museum is first and foremost a museum providing an educational experience for its visitors on a daily basis during its operating season May – October. No museum activities, exhibits, or schedules will be altered for the needs of a private event. The Antique Boat Museum reserves the right to make changes to its rental policies at any time. ABM will provide: clean event space, clean restrooms, post-event garbage removal, and security supervision during the event.

Rental Policies:

Renter is responsible for actions of all guests while on the ABM campus. ABM is not responsible for items left on campus.

Service animals are permitted in accordance with the ADA, no other pets are allowed on campus.

Guests may park on the village streets, in the main gravel parking lot on Mary St., and in the Community Lot located between James St. and Riverside Dr.

No swimming is permitted from ABM docks or seawall.

No flames are allowed, included but not limited to: candles, torches, sparklers, bonfires.

No smoking is allowed on ABM campus including buildings, grounds, and docks; guests wishing to smoke may do so on exterior sidewalks.

The Antique Boat Museum will provide all photography, décor, floral, food, and beverage needs. Micro-wedding renters are able to bring up to 50 guests to campus for their event. Guests may check in at Admissions and general admission is included.

The couple may choose to participate in a 45 minute cruise following the ceremony and may bring the photographer if desired.

Two hours of Boardroom usage are included with one hour of ceremony time followed by light refreshments in one of our riverside facilities.

Rental Fees:

Security/Hold the Date Deposit- $100

Due upon signing the contract, this fee holds your event date and serves as a deposit against any potential damage, excessive cleaning, or violation of the rental policies. Please note: evidence of liquor being present at your event with or without your knowledge will result in the loss of your security deposit. Upon passing a post-event inspection by ABM staff, the security deposit will be returned within 4 weeks of event.

By executing this Contract, the Renter acknowledges that the Antique Boat Museum shall be held harmless and shall have no liability to the Renter (except for return of a deposit), in the event the facility which is reserved is not available due to fire or other type of unforeseen casualty such as inclement weather, or any act of God which is not within the reasonable control of the Antique Boat Museum.
